NASHVILLE PREDATORS PARTNER WITH WINDOW WORLD FOR THE 2017-18 SEASON

Nashville, Tenn. (August 18, 2017) – The Nashville Predators have announced today a new partnership with Window World as they enter the 2017-18 season. This partnership will be seen through activations along the main concourse inside Bridgestone Arena, as well as through sponsorships of the ice maintenance team’s uniforms.

“Window World is the most dominate force in the home remodeling industry with over 50,000 homes installed in Middle Tennessee and millions nationwide,” Window World of Murfreesboro and Upper Cumberland Owner Josh Watson said. “We are very excited to be partnered with one of the most dominate teams in the nation, the Nashville Predators!”

“Window World, America's largest remodeling company, is excited to be partnered with the Nashville Predators,” Window World of Clarksville Owner Michael Hoover said. “Anybody that has attended a Preds game at Bridgestone Arena knows that they strive to provide the best possible fan experience. Window World also strives for the same great customer experience and satisfaction with homeowners through professional installation of windows, siding and doors.”

“The Nashville Predators partner with hundreds of organizations across Middle Tennessee and nationally and are excited to being this partnership with Window World,” Nashville Predators Executive Vice President and CRO Chris Junghans said.
